City Announces 2022 Lineup for Kokomo Summer Concert Series

KOKOMO, IND. (March 21, 2022) – The City of Kokomo is proud to present its 2022 Kokomo Summer Concert Series at the Kokomo Performing Arts Pavilion in downtown Kokomo. This year’s lineup offers a little bit of something for everyone, with performances from the Rubber Soul, Rev. Peyton’s Big Damn Band, When Doves Cry, Los Colognes, Flying Toasters and more.

Mayor Tyler Moore said summer wouldn’t be the same without the Kokomo Summer Concert Series.

“Our city is blessed with a tremendous venue in the Kokomo Performing Arts Pavilion,” said Moore. “The sound of music filling the air in Foster Park has become an integral part of summer in Kokomo. We are looking forward to enjoying these great bands in the coming months.”

The concerts align with several festivals throughout the summer, such as Weberfest, the Carver Center 25th Anniversary Celebration, Rhumfest and the Firefighter’s Jeep Jam. In addition to live music, each concert will have food vendors and a beer garden.

All concerts are family friendly, ideal for those on a date night or spending time with family or friends. Participants are encouraged to bring lawn chairs and blankets for each evening packed with fantastic entertainment.

The concerts are general admission seating and are free to the public.
