

Featured vendors & activities

ABATE of Howard County: The children's motorcycle adventure, aka Tiny Tots. A free activity teaching littles to ride a motorcycle.

Community First Bank of Indiana: Dunk a Banker in the dunk tank.

Crown Haven: Live animal petting and feeding.

Howard County Recycling: Sharing recycling information and ideas for re-using the empty Strawberry Festival strawberry buckets as planters or worm composters, etc.

IU Kokomo Plein Air Painting Competition: Area artists of all levels are encouraged to participate in this free painting event. Artists check in at Artworks Gallery (210 N. Main St.) from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m. and paint an outdoor scene in downtown Kokomo until 5 p.m. when judging takes place. A total of $1,400 in prizes will be awarded in the contest juried by Cincinnati artist Brad Davis. For more information, contact Aaron Pickens at ajpicken@iu.edu.

Kokomo/Howard County Public Library Bookmobile: Check out books from your library Bookmobile!

Rhum Academy of Music: Live music from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Kokomo Men of Note: Strolling festival grounds and serenading the crowds.

Kokomo Park Band: Live music performance in several locations

The Knotty Mama: Learn macrame with a free make-it-and-take-it keychain (while supplies last).

The Salvation Army Kokomo: Donut Day donut giveaway.

Pool Noodle Public Art Station: Make public art out of pool noodles. IU Kokomo New Media, Arts & Technology Department partnered with the Downtown Association to bring this engaging art activity to life.

